INTRODUCTION

会 议 介 绍

Data privacy, the ability to hire non-European nationals and Brexit are key issues for any company currently based in Europe or looking to establish itself within Europe. Kevin Slattery from a leading Irish law firm A&L Goodbody Solicitors (ALG) will provide us with insights and the latest developments on these matters from an Irish employment law perspective.

We will also explore the differences between GDPR and Chinese laws on data privacy and apply the rules in various scenarios that a company may face in its employment & HR practice.

We hope guests can join us for some refreshments (which include the famous Irish drink, Guinness) so that you can meet our speakers and the JunHe Labor Team.

同时，我们还将探讨 GDPR 与中国的数据隐私法律之间的差异，并将这些法律规则应用于公司在人力资源管理实践中可能面临的各种情况进行一系列剖析。
